REVIEWING PACKER HISTORY

FOUNDING — The Packers started out in 1919 as a "scrub" team of former Green Bay High School stars organized by Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau, who had played at Notre Dame. A war-time plant, The Indian Packing Company, agreed to give Curly $500 for uniforms if they called their team the Packers. The Packing company folded up after World War I but the Packers are now in their 36th season of professional football.

EARLY DAYS — That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fence or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight, and at the end of the season it had to be forfeited. This was the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained some other backers, bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out, but the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundreth of an inch short of that required in the policy. Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A. B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

THE IRON MAN ERA — With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein, and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 to 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD — Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict. And the insurance company went busted. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold up when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital, reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. And from his first game on, he became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. On his first play in professional ball against the Chicago Bears, he took a pass from Arnie Herber and went 94 yards for the only score of the game. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME — After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline, which, with the disastrous pro football war, brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. And in the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort, with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until in 1952 the Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. But in 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule. Assistant coaches Hugh Devore and Ray McLean took the team to the Pacific Coast for the final two games.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER — The Packers went to the college ranks for their new coach after the example of the Cleveland Browns and San Francisco Forty-Niners, and hired Lisle W. Blackbourn of Marquette University, a native Wisconsinite who has coached high school and college football in the state for almost 30 years. Blackbourn has the reputation of being a strict fundamentalist, an able organizer and administrator, and a coach who gets the most from his players. He immediately made a hit by hiring Tom (Red) Hearden of Green Bay as his first assistant, and then added Lou Rymkus and retained Ray McLean. At the same time, the Packers drastically overhauled their business set-up by hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. In Blackbourn and Lewellen, the Packers think they have the combination which will bring their team back to its former days of glory.

VERNE C. LEWELLEN — General Manager

One of the all-time Packer greats, Verne C. Lewellen, is directing the destinies of the Green Bay Packers as its first general manager.

Lewellen was a spark plug in the backfield that saw Green Bay sweep to three straight world championships in 1929, 1930 and 1931.

He was a fine running halfback, a great defensive player, but was particularly noted for his booming punts that traveled far down field. League statistics were not maintained in the earlier days but many observers and players believe his punting would exceed well over 50 yards per boot.

He holds fourth position in the all-time scoring with a total of 301 points over nine seasons of play. This total includes 50 touchdowns and one extra point and for five straight years he led the Packers in scoring.

Before joing the Packers he was an all-conference halfback and baseball pitcher at Nebraska and after graduation tried out with the Pittsburgh Pirates as a pitcher before reporting to Green Bay in 1924.

A lawyer by profession, he was elected district attorney of Brown County while still active in football and served two terms. He continued the law practice after this and then entered the employ of Standard Oil Company where he was personnel supervisor and then later tax supervisor.

Born in Garland, Nebraska, on September 29, 1901, Lewellen is a widower and has three children, two sons and a daughter.

LISLE W. BLACKBOURN — Head Coach

Head Coach Lisle "Liz" Blackbourn, in his first season of professional football, comes to the Packers with the highest recommendations by his contemporaries in the coaching profession, as an exact fundamentalist; strict disciplinarian; shrewd tactician and a leader of the men he coaches.

He first gained renown as football coach at Washington High School in Milwaukee where he compiled an enviable record of 140 victories, 30 losses and six ties, and won 10 city championships in 22 years.

The Packers signed him after he had coached at Marquette University for four years and had brought the Hilltoppers to a position where they figured in the national ranking. Last season at Marquette his team won six and lost three with the losses at the hands of Big Ten teams — Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan State. Those three losses were by a mere total of nine points.

Blackbourn is a native Wisconsin product. He was born in Lancaster, attended school there, and starred in football for four years at Lawrence College, where he was captain in his senior year.

Following graduation from Platteville, he took over at Washington High School in Milwaukee and retired as coach in 1946. He continued his teaching duties, however, and became a full-time football scout for the University of Wisconsin.

In 1948 he was named backfield coach at Wisconsin and the following year, when Harry Stuhldreher resigned as Badger coach, he was one of the ranking candidates for the head job.

He joined Marquette in 1949 as assistant coach to Frank Murray and advanced to the head coaching position in 1950.

Blackbourn has two sons, Charles and Lisle, Jr., who was a star quarterback for Wisconsin for three years.

TOM HEARDEN — Assistant Coach

Tom Hearden was the first assistant hired by Head Coach Lisle Blackbourn when Blackbourn took over the Packer head job in the winter of 1954. The one-time Green Bay East, Notre Dame and Packer halfback, has compiled a fantastic .840 won and lost record in his 20 years of coaching. He graduated from East in 1923, enrolled at Notre Dame and co-captained the Irish under Knute Rockne in 1926. He played with the Packers and then decided to enter the coaching field in 1930 at St. Catherine High School in Racine. He later coached at Green Bay East, Iowa Pre-Flight and St. Norbert College. He married the former Marion Moore of Green Bay and they have three children, Sarah 20, Tom 11, and Jimmy 10.

RAY "Scooter" McLEAN — Assistant Coach

Ray "Scooter" McLean is in his fourth season as backfield coach for the Packers. Before coming to the Packers, he was head coach at Lewis College in Lockport, Illinois, from 1948 to 1950. McLean, a Little All-American halfback at St. Anselm's College in Manchester, N.H., played eight years with the Chicago Bears and was a member of four championship teams. He was considered one of the fastest backs in football. While at St. Anselm's he also competed in track, hockey and baseball in addition to football. He was born in Lowell, Massachusetts, December 6, 1915, married and has one son.

LOU RYMKUS — Assistant Coach

Lou Rymkus, Packer line coach, has a football background of winning tradition. He was a member of Frank Leahy's first Notre Dame team which went through the 1941 season unbeaten. He has been a winner ever since. After leaving Notre Dame, Lou played a year of pro football with the Washington Redskins and helped them capture the Eastern Division title in 1943. While serving in the Navy he played on Bainbridge Naval Training Station's unbeaten eleven. After his service stint he joined the Cleveland Browns in 1946 where he played for six seasons, retiring in 1951. The Browns were champions each of those six years. Last season Rymkus line-coached the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian league. Born in Royalton, Illinois, he is married and the father of twin sons, Fat and Mike.

JACK VAINISI — Talent Scout

Jack Vainisi is in his fifth year as the Packers game and talent scout and administrative assistant. He played his college football at Notre Dame, graduating from that institution in 1950. An illness, received while in service, cut short a promising professional football career.

With the prominence of Talent Scouting now displayed in professional football, Jack's position has taken on added responsibilities. He is employed on a year-around basis and has made football a study. He enjoys a wide acquaintance throughout the country with former players and coaches. Vainisi is married and resides in Green Bay.

PACKER FOOTBALL BROADCASTS

EARL GILLESPIE

The Miller Brewing Company of Milwaukee will again sponsor the broadcasts of Green Bay Packer Football games this fall. All 12 National Football League games will be broadcast plus the six pre-season contests.

The games will be aired by the Wisconsin Network over more than 50 stations in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Michigan.

Earl Gillespie, one of the Mid-West's most popular sports announcers, will again handle the play-by-play. Gillespie is well known for his accurate and enthusiastic announcing of the Major League Milwaukee Braves baseball games both home and away.

For the third straight year, Tony Flynn will join Gillespie to bring the action packed accounts of the Packer games to listening fans. Also on hand will be Bob Forte, popular former Packer star and team captain, who will describe the plays of his former teammates to Packerland fandom.

DUMONT NETWORK WILL TELECAST 69 PRO GAMES THIS FALL

The DuMont Television Network, with a series of Saturday afternoon and night contests and Sunday afternoon games, will telecast 69 National Football League football games this fall.

A total of 57 games are listed for Sunday afternoons with the remainder listed for either Saturday afternoon, or night.

The Green Bay Packers game with Detroit on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, at Detroit, will also be televised. The game will start at 11:05 A.M., EST.

In order to handle the heavy schedule, DuMont again this year will telecast as many as four or five games each Sunday afternoon, setting regional networks to make sure that fans see the teams of their primary interest in action.

The schedule is the most comprehensive ever offered on Television.

Cities where games originate will be blacked out.

Every city in the National Football League will be a point of origin for DuMont's pro football telecasts during the coming season on the week-ends from September 25 through December 11.

Sunday afternoon games will be televised over the DuMont Television Network from New York, Washington, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Detroit, Cleveland, Milwaukee, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco.
